Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of a Current Servicemember for Military Caregiver Leave

DO NOT SEND COMPLETED FORM TO THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.
RETURN TO THE PATIENT.

The Connecticut Family and Medical Leave Act (CTFMLA) provides that eligible employees may take CTFMLA leave to care for a covered servicemember with a serious illness or injury. The CTFMLA allows an employer to require an employee seeking CTFMLA leave for this purpose to submit a medical certification. The employer must give the employee at least 15 calendar days from the date the employee receives the form to provide the certification. If the employee fails to provide complete and sufficient certification, his or her CTFMLA leave request may be denied. Information about the CTFMLA may be found at <https://portal.ct.gov/DOLUI/newfmlaguidance>.

SECTION I - EMPLOYER

Either the employee or the employer may complete Section I. While use of this form is optional, it asks the health care provider for the information necessary for a complete and sufficient medical certification. You may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the CTFMLA regulations. Recertifications are not allowed for CTFMLA leave to care for a covered servicemember. Where medical certification is requested by an employer, an employee may not be held liable for administrative delays in the issuance of military documents, despite the employee's diligent, good-faith efforts to obtain such documents. An employer requiring an employee to submit a certification for leave to care for a covered servicemember must accept as sufficient certification invitational travel orders (ITOs) or invitational travel authorizations (ITAs) issued to any family member to join an injured or ill servicemember at the servicemember's bedside. An ITO or ITA is sufficient certification for the duration of time specified in the ITO or ITA.

Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical information, medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members created for CTFMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files.

SECTION II - EMPLOYEE and/or CURRENT SERVICEMEMBER

Please complete all Parts of Section II before having the servicemember's health care provider complete Section III. The CTFMLA allows an employer to require that an employee submit a timely, complete, and sufficient certification to support a request for CTFMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember. If requested by your employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of CTFMLA-protected leave.

SECTION III - HEALTH CARE PROVIDER

Please provide your contact information, complete all Parts of this Section fully and completely, and sign the form below. The employee listed at Section I has requested leave under the CTFMLA to care for a family member who is a current member of the Armed Forces, the National Guard, or the Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness.

Note: For purposes of CTFMLA leave, a "serious injury or illness" is one that was incurred in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces or that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform the duties of the servicemember's office, grade, rank, or rating. "Need for care" includes both physical and psychological care. It includes situations where, for example, due to his or her serious injury or illness, the servicemember is not able to care for his or her own basic medical, hygienic, or nutritional needs or safety, or needs transportation to the doctor. It also includes providing psychological comfort and reassurance which would be beneficial to the servicemember who is receiving inpatient or home care. A "complete and sufficient certification" to support a request for CTFMLA leave due to a current servicemember's serious injury or illness includes written documentation confirming that the servicemember's injury or illness was incurred in the line of duty on active duty or if not, that the current servicemember's injury or illness existed before the beginning of the servicemember's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces, and that the current servicemember is undergoing treatment for such injury or illness by a health care provider listed below.

Some questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as “lifetime,” “unknown,” or “indeterminate” may not be sufficient to determine CTFMLA coverage.

(1) Due to the condition, the servicemember will need care for a continuous period of time, including any time for treatment and recovery. Provide your best estimate of the beginning date _____ (mm/dd/yyyy) and end date (mm/dd/yyyy) for this period of time.

Provide your best estimate of how often (frequency) and how long (the duration) the intermittent episodes will likely last.

Over the next 6 months, intermittent care is estimated to occur _____ times per ( day/ week/ month) and is likely to last approximately _____ ( hours/ days) per episode.
